Democratic National Convention
September 25, 1968, Prior to the meeting of the House Un-American Activities Committee

D. Dellinger, Chairman
Interim Executive Committee

At approximately 1:00 PM, five of the individuals, including Ramone H. Smith and Ronnie Davis, departed from the meeting room and proceeded to the Commodore Bar, leaving David Dellinger and two unidentified males in the meeting room, where they appeared to be holding a discussion.

At 1:30 PM, David Dellinger and the two unidentified individuals left Parlor B and departed from the Commodore Hotel.

After the meeting, SAs of the FBI obtained a copy of a NECLC news release dated September 25, 1968, which had been abandoned in the meeting room.

This news release states in part as follows:

"The National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee today condemned the forthcoming House Un-American Activities Committee hearings as an 'attempt by the Johnson Administration to use every mechanism at its disposal to legitimize the action of Mayor Daley and the Chicago police. It is a continuation of the crack-down on dissent which began in Chicago under the aegis of Mayor Daley, but it is now being openly taken over by the Federal Government.'

"Both the HUAC hearings and the harassment by the F.B.I. of persons who were in Chicago - including delegates to the Convention shows that the government is not really interested in an investigation of what happened in Chicago, but in discrediting the peace movement and the people who went to Chicago to exercise their constitutional rights."

"In all of its history the House Un-American Activities Committee has functioned only to penalize individuals Americans for exercising their rights to free speech, free assembly and association and to stifle such exercise on the part of others by creating similar penalties."

"The National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee said that they, the National Lawyers Guild and the Law Center for Constitutional Rights were providing legal representation for the people who have been subpoenaed -- David Dellinger, Tom Hayden, Abbie Hoffman, Jerry Rubin and Ronnie Davis who received his subpoena today."

"Abbie Hoffman, at a press conference this afternoon announced plans for a week of demonstrations next week in Washington, D.C. against HUAC and he called upon the F.B.I. to stop harassing him."

"Last night, the Students for a Democratic Society also announced plans for a week of demonstrations against HUAC starting Sunday, September 29 with a 'be-in' at the 'P' Street Beach and a rally at George Washington University on Tuesday night, October 1 at which time the five persons who have been subpoenaed and their lawyers (Michael Kennedy and Henry Di Suvero of the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee; William Kunstler of the Law Center for Constitutional Rights; and Gerald Lefcourt of the National Lawyers Guild) will speak."

"NECLC also said that their office had been contacted by numerous people who were being harassed by the F.B.I. Agents telephone or visit people in the middle of the night. Many of the agents have been mis-leading people by representing that they are investigating complaints of police brutality when in fact, NECLC said, they are 'looking for evidence to bring prosecutions under the anti-riot provisions of the 1967 Civil Rights Act which provides that anyone who travels in interstate commerce or who uses the mails with intent to incite a riot or to organize, promote, encourage or carry on a riot shall be fined $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years.'
